

Summer 2006

Rideau Skaters cool off by the pool after heating it up at the rink this summer.

Rideau Skaters take a well deserved break having a fun day by the pool before they start their new season. Members of the Rideau Skating Club have been busy training and competing in Summer competitions. The club's skaters competed at the recent Minto Summer Skate at the end of July and again this past weekend at Thornhill's Summer Skate in Toronto. Dance pair Samantha Glavine and Andrew Wildey won Silver in Thornhill, while Rachel McMahon with her partner Tanner White from the Nepean Skating Club won a Bronze. Emily Wildey took a fourth place in her freeskate, and Michelle Massart, Shaylynn Nault and Breanne Stewart also represented Rideau well with their performances. Skating starts back up at Rideau on Sept. 11th, with Canskate registrations running Sept 12th in Riverside South, Sept. 14th in Manotick and Sept. 21st at the Fred Barrett Arena..
