

Rideau Skaters place well at Morrisburg Invitational Competition

Skaters from the Rideau Skating Club attended the Morrisburg Invitational Competition over the weekend. Skaters were represented in Star Skate and Competitive events from Pre-Preliminary to Pre-Novice.

Shea Timmins, Samantha Glavine, and Andrew Wildey all coached by Katrina Millard and Darryl VanLuven, competed at the Pre-Preliminary freeskate level, with Samantha and Andrew each taking home a silver medal. Emily Valentine, coached by Marie-Josée Cloutier, took home a bronze medal at Pre-Preliminary as well.

Victoria Huddleson, also coached by Cloutier, competed at Preliminary Ladies earning a fourth place finish.

Shaylynn Nault and Laura Mulvey, both coached by Millard and VanLuven, as well as Kailey Taplin, Beth Clapin and Jasmine Hedley coached by Jan Calnan, and Courtney Douglas, coached by Cloutier, all competed at the Junior Bronze level. Shaylynn won a gold medal, Jasmine a silver, and Courtney came fourth in her event.

Emily Burda, coached by Andrew Bestwick, won a gold medal at the Senior Bronze level.

Breanne Stewart, Emily Wildey and Michelle Massart, all coached by Millard and VanLuven, skated in the competitive levels which were a new addition at Morrisburg Invitational this year. Breanne won silver in Pre-Juvenile Ladies, while Emily won silver at Juvenile Ladies. Michelle competed at Pre-Novice ladies in both the short and the long events.

Back Row: Courtney Douglas, Shaylynn Nault, Emily Burda, Michelle Massart and Jasmine Hedley
Front Row: Emily Valentine, Samantha Glavine, Andrew Wildey, Breanne Stewart, Emily Wildey, Laura Mulvey and Kailey Taplin