Rideau skaters having a busy season!

The Rideau Skating Club was well represented at the Prescott Invitational Competition last weekend. The annual competition ran Saturday and Sunday,

In Pre-Preliminary, Samantha Glavine and Shea Timmins, coached by Katrina Millard VanLuven both competed in the Women's C category. Samantha took home a silver medal and Shea took home a bronze. Andrew Wildey, also coached by Millard VanLuven, won a Gold in the Men's B flight. Amy Fedorko was competing in the B Category but unfortunately had to withdraw due to an injury. Emily Valentine competed in the F category. Both Amy and Emily are coached by Marie-Josée Cloutier.

Victoria Huddleson, coached by Cloutier, represented Rideau at Preliminary Women's C and earned a fourth place finish.

In Junior Bronze, Laura Mulvey competed in Women's A, while Courtney Douglas and Shaylynn Nault competed at Women's B. Courtney, coached by Cloutier won a Gold medal, and Shaylynn, coached by Millard VanLuven, took home a silver.

In Senior Bronze Emily Burda, coached by Andrew Bestwick brought home a silver medal.

In the Competitive categories, Breanne Stewart competed at Pre-Juvenile, Emily Wildey competed at Juvenile and Michelle Massart competed at Pre-Novice. All three are coached by Millard VanLuven. Emily came away with a silver and Michelle took a fourth place finish in Pre-Novice Ladies Short.

Rideau also had a pair representing them in both the Preliminary Dance and Introductory Pairs events. Evan and Lauren Welchner won the gold in Preliminary Dance and took the silver in Introductory Pairs.

A few Rideau skaters also competed in the Oshawa Invitational this weekend. Leia Hopkins and Emily Shearer, both coached by Jan Calnan, competed in Pre-Preliminary ladies, while Emily Burda, coached by Andrew Bestwick competed in Senior Bronze Ladies and took home a bronze medal.
